

I do not see any impact. Parents need to watch their children instead of letting the TV do it for them. If you are going to have children, then take care of them, don't let someone else or TV/Radio do it for you. I am so tired of people telling me what and what I cannot watch or hear on the radio. This is getting out of hand. TV is so boring.